Donald Trent Jacobs : Patient Communication For First Responders and EMS Personnel:The First Hour of Trauma before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Patient Communication For First Responders and EMS Personnel:The First Hour of Trauma:

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. An EMT's / Paramedic's MUST HAVEBy DKThis is a must read for anyone working in the Emergency Medical field, it teaches how the first words spoken to a patient are the most critical and it show's credible evidence that not only is this method of communication nesciary but also medicine for the mind's healing capabilities. I not only recommend this to anyone who works with EMS but i request it become part of the Learing Criteria. The pertinent contained in this book is one that can only help, not only the care takers but the patient also, not just at the time of the accident but for a lifetime.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful.
